Re: New Member Orientation Meetings

Gold Coast Health Plan's (GCHP) Member Services Department will present a series of new member orientation meetings in the month of August.

The first two sessions will be directed to members transitioning to GCHP from the Healthy Families Program (HFP). Subsequent meetings will be for all new members. Members will learn:

- How to select a primary care provider (PCP)
- How to get medical services
- How to get necessary medications
- How to use resources available in the community
- Rights and responsibilities of a GCHP member

The new member orientation meetings will be presented in both English and Spanish (on alternate days), at 2240 East Gonzales Road, Suite 200, Oxnard, CA 93036. Registration is required. Select a date to register or RSVP to (805) 981-6690.

English Dates:
